

Christmas In The Smokies

On December 2, 3 & 4, 2010, you are invited to be part of the most enjoyable, God pleasing, Christian event in the country. With over a dozen southern gospel groups and soloists, state of the art sound, dazzling lights, decorations and multi media video production; SonShine Promotions is sure you will have an enjoyable, heartfelt time. Each evening will be packed with great gospel music and hilarious comedy.

Christian Entertainment

The first night, we will invite 3 couples to the stage to participate in the ever so popular Not-So-Newlywed game. On the second night Mr. Drama, Trevor Thomas, himself will present the SonShine Variety Show with one-of-a-kind performances by your favorite groups. Also on this night before the concert, we will have an old fashion Tennessee barbeque served by the best dining room staff in the country, your performing artist. You will enjoy shredded barbeque, potato salad, coleslaw, baked beans and a very delicious dessert. On the last day in the afternoon you will be served an elegant traditional candlelit Christmas dinner served with turkey, ham and all the trimmings. While you are feasting on your dinner you will get to hear even more great gospel music, as the artist will be performing your favorite music. After the dinner, the staff and cast will present a very touching Christmas program depicting the real reason for the season as well as more great southern gospel music. Also, on Friday and Saturday mornings there will be chapel services with dynamic guest speakers and more great music.

The Great Smoky Mountains

Pigeon Forge is the gateway to the Great Smoky Mountains. During this time of year the town will be glistening with millions of Christmas lights and decorations. If you like to shop, Pigeon is home to hundreds of outlet and specialty shops.
